Dear Dr. Hockett:

Now that our Gordon Research Conference on "Oxygen Radicals in Biology and Medicine" has been completed, I wanted to write you to again express my appreciation to The Council for Tobacco Research for their support for this meeting. As I mentioned earlier, the funds were used exclusively for travel and hotel fees for those participants who would not have been able to attend without this type of funding.

I hope that Dr. David Stone found the meeting to be as useful as I did. There was no question that we had a very broad spectrum of fields and interests represented, and I hope that the kind of cross-fertilization that meetings such as this one create will have stimulated many ideas among the participants.

Sincerely yours,

Norman I. Krinsky, Ph.D.
Professor
